

Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia online, gives us this biography ... John Bradosky graduated from the Hamma School of Theology at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, and from Indiana University of Pennsylvania at Indiana, Pennsylvania.

He had 32 years of pastoral experience when he was elected the first Bishop of the North American Lutheran Church (NALC,) having served in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). He was senior pastor of St. John Lutheran Church, in Springfield, Ohio, Trinity Lutheran Church, in Canton, Ohio, and Grace Lutheran Church, in Huntington Beach, California. He was the senior pastor of the Epiphany Lutheran Church, in Dayton, Ohio, when he joined the North American Lutheran Church upon its creation in June 2010. He was appointed NALC General Secretary in January 2011.

John was the first elected Bishop of the North American Lutheran Church at their Convocation, which reunited around 800 Lutherans at Upper Arlington Lutheran Church in Hilliard, Ohio, on 11 August 2011, to serve for a four-year term. His installation service was attended by the Rt. Rev. Ray Sutton (representing the Anglican Church in North America), the Rev. Dr. Joseph Small (representing the Presbyterian Church (USA)), as well as the Rev. Dr. Berhanu Ofga'a (representing the Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus). He was reelected for another four-year term at the NALC Convocation, on 13 August 2015.

